Jenny gained a degree in Mathematics and Management Sciences in 1979 and qualified as an Accountant in 1980. After 10 years with a firm of Chartered Accountants Jenny was employed in a National Property Group and became Finance Director of the Estate Agency Division. She retired from the business in 2010 and gained a teaching qualification in 2011. Jenny currently is an examiner of GCSE Statistics.

In the past Jenny has assisted students with careers advice by arranging and assisting at careers events and in mock interviews for students. She is interested in ensuring students can develop their self- belief and confidence so that they can aim for their personal goals. She is married with three grown up children and lives in Shawbury near Shustoke.
