Parents/Guardians of year 10 English Students

Dear Parents and Guardians

As you are aware, as part of your child’s English Literature GCSE, they are required to study the following texts for their examination:

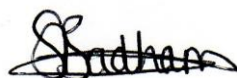

- A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens
- Macbeth by William Shakespeare
- An Inspector Calls by J.B Priestley
- AQA Poetry Anthology (Power and Conflict)

Next half term, Year 10 will go on to study the final text for their exam: An Inspector Calls. Whilst we have copies of this play for use in the classroom, we would appreciate your support in purchasing personal copies to aid students in their revision both in lesson and at home. In their own copy they will be able to make notes on key aspects of plot, theme and characterisation which will also prove useful when they revisit and revise in Year 11 looking at and completing exam questions. We are able to purchase these at a discounted rate from our book suppliers for £8.20.

If you would be interested in purchasing a copy of An Inspector Calls, please could I ask you to do so via ParentPay by Monday 22nd October. Books will be distributed to all students when the class begin studying the text. If your child is in receipt of Pupil Premium, texts will be provided for them.

If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to get in touch.

Yours faithfully
